

FREE
Replay Weekend
7-9 February 2025

The North Carolina Genealogical Society presents:

Judy G. Russell, CG®, CGL®

“Courting North Carolina: The Courts of the Tarheel State, Part 1”

About the Webinar: Our North Carolina ancestors left a treasure trove of records in the courts of their time. Finding the right court and the right records can be a challenge; yet understanding the records of the courts closest to the average citizen is a skill that’s crucial to finding clues to family history in the Tarheel State. Part 1 examines colonial and early statehood records.

Webinar Viewing Options

The free public three-day viewing of this recorded webinar will be on 7-9 February, 2025. After the free replay weekend, the webinar and accompanying handout PDF will be available on the website to NCGS members as a member benefit.*

A genealogist with a law degree, Judy G. Russell is a lecturer, educator and writer who enjoys helping others understand a wide variety of genealogical issues, including the interplay between genealogy and the law. She has a bachelor’s degree in political science and journalism from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and a law degree from Rutgers School of Law-Newark, and holds Certified Genealogist and Certified Genealogical Lecturer credentials from the Board for Certification of Genealogists.

She has worked as a newspaper reporter, trade association writer, legal investigator, defense attorney, federal prosecutor, law editor and, until her retirement, was an adjunct member of the faculty at Rutgers Law School. Judy is a Colorado native with roots deep in the American south on her mother’s side and entirely in Germany on her father’s side.
